

HERE'S NEWS.

A Recently Divorced Couple to Re-Marry To-morrow.

A marriage will take place at the residence of Dr. M. S. Merriwether at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning that will be a great surprise to the public. The contracting parties will be Mr. J. Wheeler Cayce and his divorced wife, Mrs. Rebecca Adams Cayce. The couple were divorced last year on grounds that bordered on the sensational and only last March there was a suit in Circuit Court over the possession of the three children. The court left them in the possession of the mother, but granted the father permission to see the children as often as he wished. This seems to have led to the reconciliation and a revival of their old love.

The ceremony will be performed by Elder J. W. Mitchell, and the couple will board for a few days at Dr. Merriwether's. Next week they will go to the farm recently purchased by Mr. Cayce, near Church Hill, and go to housekeeping with their children with them a happy and reunited family.

WAR COSTS MONEY.

Some of the New Taxes in Effect July 1st.

It costs money to keep the flag floating over the Philippines and Cuba, and to raise the wherewith the Government has imposed many new taxes and tariffs, which will go into effect July 1.

That the tariff is a tax is evidenced by the fact that tea has already advanced in price to the extent of the duty thereon. Five o'clock teas will be more expensive hereafter and beer drinkers will not be the only sufferers. The habitual smoker, as well as the cigarette fiend, will suffer. Three instead of four ounces of tobacco will be sold for five cents, and no more will twenty cigarettes be sold for five cents. The banker, the baker and the broker will be called upon to contribute, as well as the theater and circus owner.

Princeton, Ky., June 18.—(Special.)—After a trial of four days, the James Russell murder case was given to the jury yesterday. The jury was selected after panel of sixty had been exhausted, from Lyon county. The crime for which Russell is on trial in the Circuit court is the murder of Hewlett Howton, by a mob, in which old man Howton was shot and left for dead at his home, and an attempt was made to hang Berry Howton. Russell was badly wounded in the fight with the Howtons. Glenn Steffy, a member of the mob, who was sentenced to life imprisonment was brought here from the Frankfort penitentiary by the Commonwealth, but refused to testify, although he implicated Russell two years previous. DR. WHITSITT vote was forced on the anti-Whitsittites at Georgetown and he wanted it continued now. Dr. Eaton read the report of the Committee on Denominational control of Educational Institutions, saying that many prominent Baptist institutions are under the control of the Associations of their States. Advising co-ordination of all institutions and that a committee of nine be appointed to visit and inspect our Baptist schools and report to this Association, how best to advance their interest. In respect to the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary be advised that this body re-affirm its decision of last year.

Dr. Eaton defended his motion. Dr. Kerfoot asked that the action of the Association about the Seminary, taken last year, be read.

This action was that the Association request the Convention to allow it to nominate its own trustees to fill vacancies on the Seminary Board.

This committee is to be called the "Commission of Education" and will take the place of our Committee on Schools and Colleges. Three of this commission are to go out of office each year, and all of its members shall be elected by this body.

Dr. Kerfoot opposed the part of this report which referred to the Seminary and proposed that the two propositions be taken separately. He did not object to the clause referring to schools and colleges.

Dr. Kerfoot's motion to separate the report was opposed by Dr. Eaton and Dr. Davidson, but being second was passed.

Prof. A. F. Williams opposed the co-ordination feature of the report. Adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

Saturday Afternoon.

General Association convened at 2 p. m. The special order was set aside for five minutes to recognize visiting ministers. Regular order was then resumed. Dr. J. S. Coleman announced speakers for the anti-Whitsitt side, to speak one hour, as follows: C. G. Jones, W. K. Penrod, W. H. Felix, J. T. Christian, and T. T. Eaton for half an hour.

The resolution was then read as reported in these columns, and the first speaker, Rev. C. G. Jones, came forward. He said in part: "Men's motives have been questioned. The earth has been scoured by the other side to find bad motives for our actions, while theirs must not be assailed. Another charge is that opposition to Dr. Whitsitt has no basis, that there are no charges against Dr. Whitsitt. There is defamation of all opposers of his.

They are called Martinists, Crawfords, etc. Why have you not discussed fairly? Are we all landmarkers? Are we all Gospel Missions? Are we all of no account, of no influence?

One hundred and thirty-seven thousand white Baptists declared in their associations against Dr. Whitsitt. Nothing but his retirement can help matters. He has been urged on by unwise men to a place from which he can not retire.

He then stated the regular charges made against the President of the Seminary.

The second speaker, Rev. W. K. Penrod, said in part: I speak in kindness and speak my deep convictions. It is hard to distinguish between a man's personal and his official acts. I speak of his actions.

I do not consider Dr. Whitsitt a good Baptist, because he has privately and publicly taught that which is contrary to the teaching of the Lord Jesus Christ and to the belief of Baptists.

I have seven affidavits to prove that he advocates the wife's joining the husband's church. He is not a Baptist. He said the family outranked the church, the wife ought conscientiously, or otherwise, he said in the Seminary, to join her husband's church.

Again he lacks the equipoise necessary to treat justly those who employ him while in the pay of the people; he maligned the Baptists in an encyclopedia, then as President he affirmed this mistake of his youth. Then he published a 45c book and charged a dollar for it instead of defending himself in the state papers; again he has not the judgment to see why his constituency object to him. He could say peace be still. He knows it. He will not. Only one Whitsitt man in the Purchase and he thinks the Doctor should resign. He is responsible for this wrangling to-day. Others have as good rights as he has. You can't run the Seminary because you gave money. If you gave it, it was no longer yours. They have swung into ecclesiasticism which had its origin in man's heart. I am not personal.

The discussion will close and the vote be taken at five o'clock.
